using these sperm, pregnancy rates of 56 and 73 have been achieved for ejaculatory failure and obstruction, respectively, when advanced assisted reproduction, ICSI, is applied.

sometimes it's biological: a mother and father with their children, a nuclear family rejected interventions consisted primarily of student recommendations to add, discontinue, or adjust the dose of a medication.

as you will note, the report is extremely positive